EMPLOYER STATEMENT

We wish to enroll our organization as an employer account with National Health Insurance Company. We understand the eligibility rules applicable to enrollment and understand the premium requirements. Employee participation requirements and employer contribution have been explained and we understand that these must be maintained in order for the account to remain eligible for coverage.

PREMIUM REQUIREMENTS: Monthly premiums are due and payable in full on the first day or the fifteen (to coincide with original effective date) of each calendar month. There is a grace period of 31 days for payment of monthly premium during which grace period the Policy will continue in force, unless We have given prior written notice of discontinuance. We are liable to the Company for the payment of a pro rata Premium for the time the coverage was in force during such grace period.

To the best of our knowledge and behalf, the foregoing statements are true and complete. This application shall be the basis for the issuance of coverage under the Group Policy and shall become a part thereof.

We understand that National Health Insurance Company reserves the right to rescind any individual Certificate if an Employee has performed an act or practice constituting fraud or made an intentional misrepresentation of material fact as prohibited by the terms of the Policy. If National Health Insurance Company intends to rescind an individual Certificate, the Company will send a notice to the Employee via regular certified mail at least 30 days prior to the effective date of the rescission explaining the reasons for the intended rescission and notifying the Employee of his or her right to appeal that decision to the California Insurance Commissioner pursuant to Section 10273.4, subdivision (b) of the California Insurance Code. After 24 months following the issuance of an individual Certificate,, National Health Insurance Company will not rescind an individual Certificate for any reason, limit any of the provisions of the Policy or Certificate, or raise premiums on the Policy or Certificate due to any omissions, misrepresentations, or inaccuracies in the Employee's enrollment form, whether willful or not.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: HIV TESTING

California law prohibits an HIV test from being required or used by health insurance companies as a condition of obtaining health insurance coverage.

BROKER STATEMENT

(1) That to the best of my knowledge, the information on the application is complete and accurate.

(2) I explained to the applicant, in easy-to-understand language, the risk to the applicant of providing inaccurate information. The applicant understood the explanation.

It is understood that if a declarant willfully states as true any material fact he or she knows to be false, that person shall, in addition to any applicable penalties or remedies available under current law, be subject to a civil penalty of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000). Any public prosecutor may bring a civil action to impose that civil penalty. These penalties shall be paid to the Insurance Fund.
