Determining your routing number

To determine your routing number, refer to your company check. The routing number is always 9 digits long and it is enclosed by colons. The location of the routing number and account number on your company check varies depending on your bank. For example:

Bank 1

Routing # Account # Check #

Bank 2

Routing # Check # Account #

Bank 3

Check # Routing # Account #

If you are unsure what the routing number/transit number is, your bank can assist you.

Enrollment Instructions

1. Complete the form below.
2. List the customer number that you wish to have paid by automatic withdrawal.
3. Attach a copy of a voided check showing the bank account to debit (Do not send a deposit slip).
4. Mail this form and a copy of a voided check to the address on the bottom of the authorization form.

Statement of Understanding

As a participant of Scheduled Direct Debit, I agree to and/or understand all of the following on behalf of my group:

It may take up to one month to establish this process. If a customer is overdue on a prior bill, a delinquency letter will be sent to the customer, and must be paid to ensure the account is not cancelled prior to the process being set up.

I authorize UnitedHealthcare to debit my group's checking or savings account for all monthly charges for coverage. I ensure sufficient funds are in my group's checking or savings account to cover my premium invoice. I understand that after my authorization is processed that my monthly premiums will be deducted from my account on the 10th of each month for payment of premiums for that month.

I understand that I will receive a monthly statement showing the amount that will be deducted from my account on the 10th of each month.

If the necessary funds are not on deposit in the account on the date of the draft, my group's coverage may be subject to termination under the terms stated in the contract with UnitedHealthcare. Also, my group may be subject to additional fees incurred by the ACEC Life/Health Trust subsequent to the termination date as a result of insufficient funds.

I will promptly notify the ACEC Life/Health Trust of any change to my group's checking or savings account. If a change occurs it is my responsibility to provide the ACEC Life/Health Trust with the current information.

Authorization

Authorization is given to UnitedHealthcare to initiate debits (payments) to the financial institution indicated below. This financial institution is authorized to debit the account. This authorization will remain in force until I send written notification to cancel, and such notification must be received by the ACEC Life/Health Trust no later than five work days prior to the scheduled date of the next transaction, in order to cancel such transaction. In the event of an erroneous charge to my account, I will send written notice to the address below within 60 days of receipt of the first statement of account on which the error appeared.

I have read and agree to the terms and conditions outlined above.
